

Zagorje ob Savi

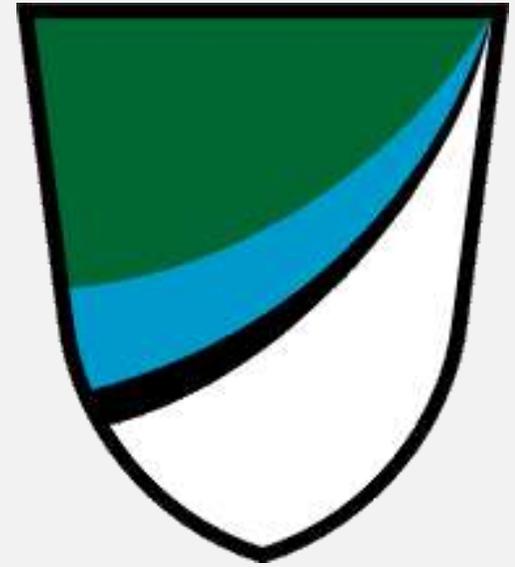

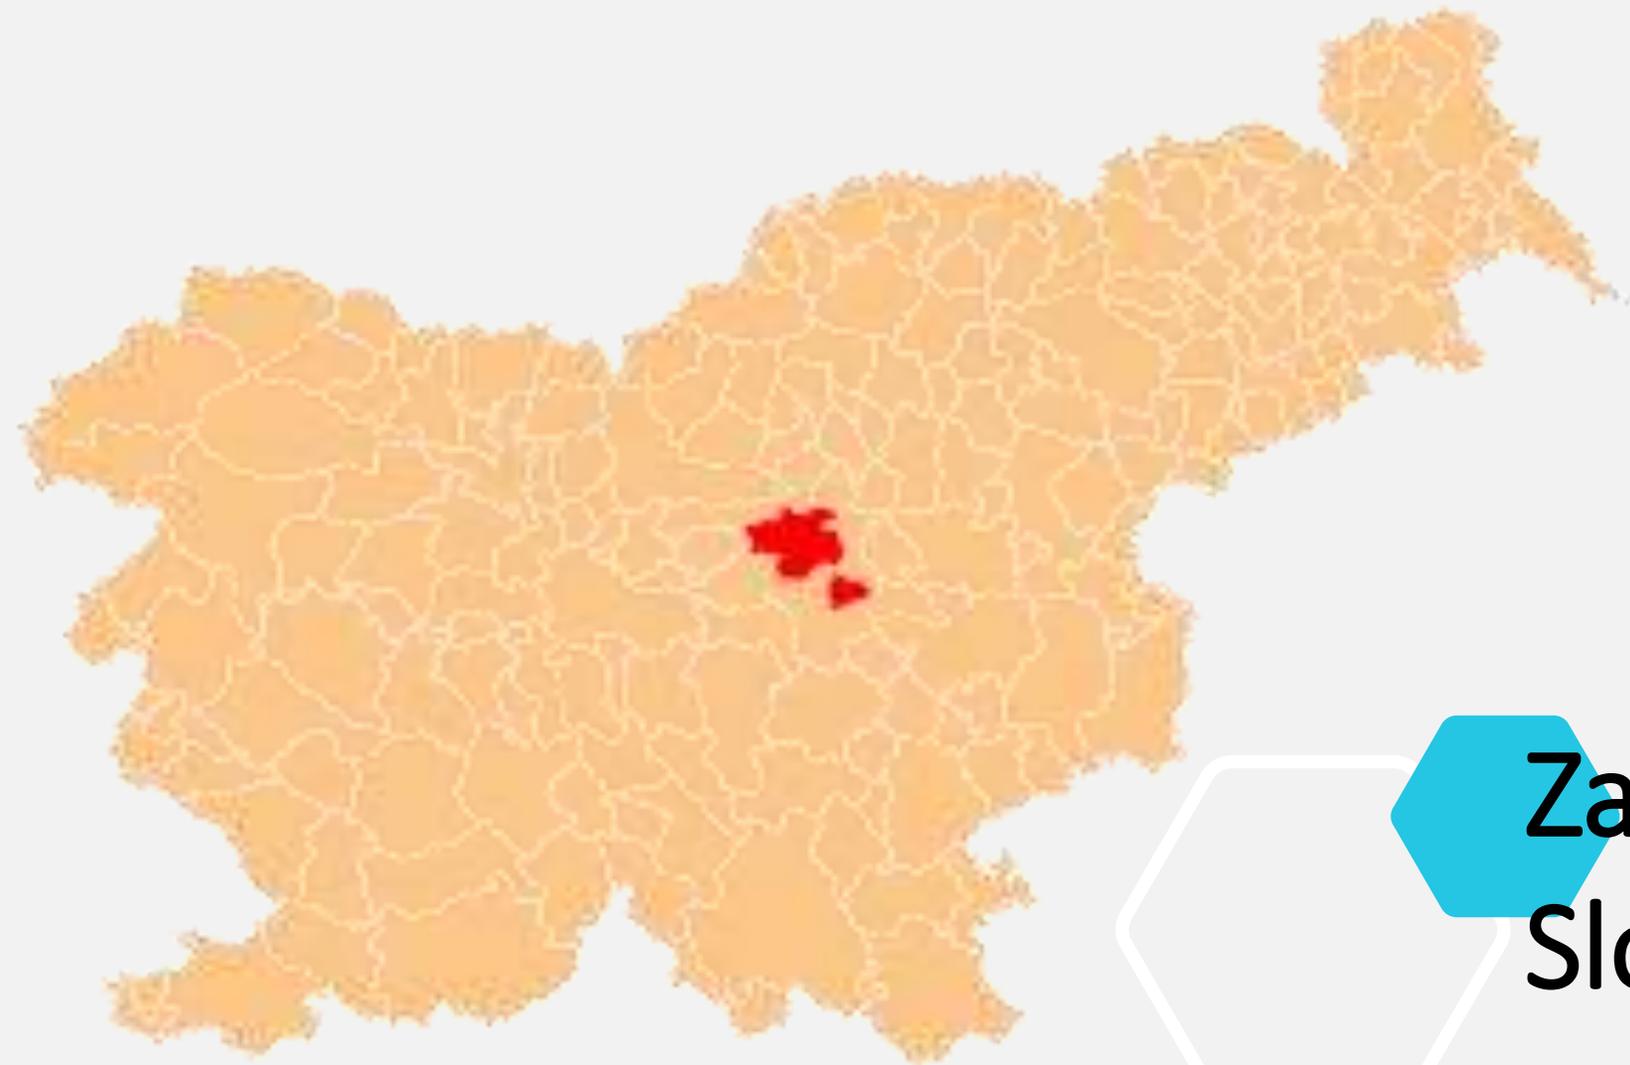

Nika

Zagorje ob Savi is a small town in Slovenia.

This big orange building is our school.

Zagorje ob Savi in Slovenia.

The river Sava flows through the town. Along the river is a city sewage treatment plant.

Zagorje is known for its coal mining.

The locomotive stands in memory of mining.

There is a mining museum in the municipality of Zagorje ob Savi.

In the house we can see the memorial room of the Slovenian bassist and singer Ladko Korošec and the collection about the national liberation struggle in the Zagorje Valley.

In Zagorje we have not only one, but many museums and monuments. One of the museums is the Weinberger House.

This is Primož Roglič. He lives in the municipality of Zagorje ob Savi and is the best cyclist in the world.

Zasavska Sveta planina is a peak in the Zagorje municipality.

A fibula from prehistory was found on Zasavska Sveta gora. In its memory there is a fountain with a fibula.

Greetings from Zagorje ob Savi!

